2 amendment, insert:

3   SEC. 220. WAIVER OF FOREIGN COUNTRY RESIDENCE RE-
4                   QUIREMENT WITH RESPECT TO INTER-
5                   NATIONAL MEDICAL GRADUATES.

6       (a) WAIVER.—Section 212(e) of the Immigration and 7 Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1182(e)) is amended—

8           (1) in the first proviso by inserting “(or, in the 9 case of an alien described in clause (iii), pursuant to 10 the request of a State Department of Public Health, 11 or its equivalent)” after “interested United States 12 Government agency”; and

1           (2) by inserting after “public interest” the fol-
2           lowing: “except that in the case of a waiver requested
3           by a State Department of Public Health, or its equiv-
4           alent the waiver shall be subject to the requirements
5           of section 214(k)”.

6           (b) RESTRICTIONS ON WAIVER.—Section 214 of such 7           Act (8 U.S.C. 1184) is amended by adding at the end the 8           following:

9           “(k)(1) In the case of a request by an interested State 10          agency for a waiver of the two-year foreign residence re-11          quirement under section 212(e) with respect to an alien de-
12          scribed in clause (iii) of that section, the Attorney General 13          shall not grant such waiver unless—

14                 “(A) in the case of an alien who is otherwise 15          contractually obligated to return to a foreign country,
16          the government of such country furnishes the Director
17          of the United States Information Agency with a state-
18          ment in writing that it has no objection to such waiv-
19          er;

20                 “(B) the alien demonstrates a bona fide offer of 21          full-time employment at a health facility and agrees
22          to begin employment at such facility within 90 days 23          of receiving such waiver and agrees to continue to 24          work in accordance with paragraph (2) at the health
25          care facility in which the alien is employed for a total

1       of not less than 3 years (unless the Attorney General
2       determines that extenuating circumstances such as the 3       closure of the facility or hardship to the alien would 4       justify a lesser period of time);

5               “(C) the alien agrees to practice medicine in ac-
6       cordance with paragraph (2) for a total of not less
7       than 3 years only in the geographic area or areas
8       which are designated by the Secretary of Health and 9       Human Services as having a shortage of health care 10       professionals; and

11               “(D) the grant of such waiver would not cause
12       the number of waivers allotted for that State for that 13       fiscal year to exceed twenty.

14               “(2)(A) Notwithstanding section 248(2) the Attorney 15       General may change the status of an alien that qualifies
16       under this subsection and section 212(e) to that of an alien 17       described in section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b).

18               “(B) No person who has obtained a change of status 19       under subparagraph (A) and who has failed to fulfill the 20       terms of a contract with a health facility shall be eligible 21       to apply for an immigrant visa, for permanent residence,
22       or for any other change of nonimmigrant status until it
23       is established that such person has resided and been phys-
24       ically present in the country of his nationality or his last

1 residence for an aggregate of at least two years following
 2 departure from the United States.

3 “(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this sub-4 section, the two-year foreign residence requirement under 5 section 212(e) shall apply with respect to an alien described 6 in clause (iii) of that section, who has not otherwise been 7 accorded status under section 101(a)(27)(H), if at any time
 8 the alien practices medicine in an area other than an area
 9 described in paragraph (1)(C).”.

10 (c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this 11 section shall apply to aliens admitted to the United States
 12 under section 101(a)(15)(J) of the Immigration and Na-
 13 tionality Act, or acquiring such status after admission to 14 the United States, before, on, or after the date of enactment
 15 of this Act and before June 1, 1996.

11       (a) JUDICIAL DEPORTATION.—Section 242A of the Im-
12       migration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1252a) is amend-13       ed by adding at the end the following new subsection:

14       “(d) JUDICIAL DEPORTATION.—

15           “(1) AUTHORITY.—Notwithstanding any other
16           provision of this Act, a United States district court 17           shall have jurisdiction to enter a judicial order of de-18           portation at the time of sentencing against an alien 19           whose criminal conviction causes such alien to be de-
20           portable under section 241(a)(2)(A), if such an order 21           has been requested by the United States Attorney with 22           the concurrence of the Commissioner and if the court
23           chooses to exercise such jurisdiction.

24           “(2) PROCEDURE.—

1           “(A) The United States Attorney shall file
2           with the United States district court, and serve 3           upon the defendant and the Service, prior to 4           commencement of the trial or entry of a guilty
5           plea a notice of intent to request judicial depor-
6           tation.

7           “(B) Notwithstanding section 242B, the 8           United States Attorney, with the concurrence of 9           the Commissioner, shall file at least 30 days
10          prior to the date set for sentencing a charge con-
11          taining factual allegations regarding the 12          alienage of the defendant and identifying the 13          crime or crimes which make the defendant de-
14          portable under section 241(a)(2)(A).

15          “(C) If the court determines that the defend- 16          ant has presented substantial evidence to estab-
17          lish prima facie eligibility for relief from depor-
18          tation under this Act, the Commissioner shall 19          provide the court with a recommendation and re-
20          port regarding the alien’s eligibility for relief.
21          The court shall either grant or deny the relief 22          sought.

23          “(D)(i) The alien shall have a reasonable
24          opportunity to examine the evidence against him
25          or her, to present evidence on his or her own be-

1       half, and to cross-examine witnesses presented by 2       the Government.

3               “(ii) The court, for the purposes of deter-
4       mining whether to enter an order described in 5       paragraph (1), shall only consider evidence that 6       would be admissible in proceedings conducted
7       pursuant to section 242(b).

8               “(iii) Nothing in this subsection shall limit
9       the information a court of the United States
10       may receive or consider for the purposes of im-
11       posing an appropriate sentence.

12               “(iv) The court may order the alien de-
13       ported if the Attorney General demonstrates that 14       the alien is deportable under this Act.

15               “(3) NOTICE, APPEAL, AND EXECUTION OF JUDI-
16       CIAL ORDER OF DEPORTATION.—

17               “(A)(i) A judicial order of deportation or 18       denial of such order may be appealed by either 19       party to the court of appeals for the circuit in 20       which the district court is located.

21               “(ii) Except as provided in clause (iii),
22       such appeal shall be considered consistent with 23       the requirements described in section 106.

24               “(iii) Upon execution by the defendant of a
25       valid waiver of the right to appeal the conviction

1       on which the order of deportation is based, the 2       expiration of the period described in section
3       106(a)(1), or the final dismissal of an appeal
4       from such conviction, the order of deportation
5       shall become final and shall be executed at the 6       end of the prison term in accordance with the 7       terms of the order. If the conviction is reversed 8       on direct appeal, the order entered pursuant to 9       this section shall be void.

10       “(B) As soon as is practicable after entry of 11       a judicial order of deportation, the Commis-
12       sioner shall provide the defendant with written 13       notice of the order of deportation, which shall 14       designate the defendant’s country of choice for 15       deportation and any alternate country pursuant 16       to section 243(a).

17       “(4) DENIAL OF JUDICIAL ORDER.—Denial with-18       out a decision on the merits of a request for a judicial 19       order of deportation shall not preclude the Attorney
20       General from initiating deportation proceedings pur-
21       suant to section 242 upon the same ground of deport-
22       ability or upon any other ground of deportability
23       provided under section 241(a).”.

24       (b) TECHNICAL AMENDMENT.—The ninth sentence of 25       section 242(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8
